

Former Governor of Formosa To Address EC Student Body

Dr. K. C. Wu, until recently Governor of Formosa and Minister Without Portfolio of the Chinese Nationalist Government, also former Mayor of Shanghai, Chungking, and Hankow, will address the Associated Students of El Camino College at 8 p.m. Monday, in the Campus Center.

Speaker

"Southeast Asia, the weak spot of the Free World," will be the topic of the world figure, one of the foremost authorities on the economic and political situation in Asia.

Limited Seats Available
Although a capacity crowd is anticipated to attend, 100 tickets will be placed on reservation for the general public. Local residents may obtain their reservations by calling in person at the bookstore of the Campus Center. Tickets will be issued on a first come, first served basis. No charge will be made.

El Camino College students may receive complimentary tickets on presentation of student body cards at the bookstore. Teachers of local high schools also will be special guests of the college at the second in the current series of lectures. Commentator Chet Huntley was the first speaker to appear in the series.

On arrival in the United States, Dr. Wu was invited to Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Compelling and moving in his delivery, the fighter for democracy speaks perfect English, according to Forest G. Murdock, president of the college.

Break With Chiang
"Dr. Wu has received a great deal of publicity following his recent open break with Chiang Kai Shek and his resignation stand. He has always been a forthright speaker, but now that he is independent, his talks are of immense interest and value," Maddafoord continued.

Born in Central China in 1903, Dr. Wu was educated in the United States; he has a BA Degree from Grinnell College, Ia., and an M. A. Degree in Government from Princeton University, and a Ph. D. awarded in 1926. He has toured 36 states and has taken summer courses at Colorado and Cornell universities.

When he was serving as Mayor of Chungking, Time magazine described him as "dashing from crisis to crisis... a sort of glorified La Guardia... a hero."

Research Firm Seeks 17-Year-Old Canines

Persons with dogs over 17 years old—the equivalent of 100 years old in humans—were being sought this week by a dog research organization as part of a scientific study. Anyone owning or knowing of a dog 17 years or older was asked to send the breed, sex, date of birth, age, and name and address of the owner to Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Ave., New York 17.

Study Safety Program

Madrona Elementary School children are learning how to be safe at home as well as school, Principal George Marich said Monday.

Each child is given a check list, prepared by the American Red Cross, to take home where they check safety in various places. The children will present a program and display of safety work at the March meeting of the Madrona PTA.

Scout Cookie Sales Begin Next Monday

Girl Scouts of the Torrance area will be out in force between Feb. 18 and 26 in an effort to supplement treasuries through the sale of cookies.

The concerted drive, in which nearly every Girl Scout Troop in the Los Angeles Council will participate, is designed to raise $100,000 for the Council. These funds will be used to provide operating expenses for the Council, camps, and other uses to augment help received each year from the Community Chest.

Some troops will maintain booths throughout the business area of Torrance, and Senior Scouts will attend meetings of clubs and organizations to make the sales talk on cookies.

Other troops will make a door-to-door canvass of their own areas.
